- Understand that discipline is the positive way the Army practices its profession.

Standards and Discipline

What are Standards?

Standards are formal, detailed instructions – describable, measurable, and achievable. Effective leaders explain the standards that apply to their organizations.

What is Discipline?

For an individual, self-discipline is the ability to control one's behavior and expresses what the Army Values require – willingly doing what is right.

For an organization, discipline is a mindset to practice sustained, systematic actions.

For Army professionals, Discipline is the positive way the Army practices its profession.

Discipline is based on pride in the profession of arms, on meticulous attention to details, and on mutual respect and confidence. Discipline must be a habit so engrained that it is stronger than the excitement of battle or the fear of death.

- General George S. Patton, Jr.
